* The early bird price is payable within 14 days. In case of your cancellation, a refund is not possible. Repetition of the event is possible as a gesture of goodwill in case of serious reasons for cancellation. There is no legal recourse.

** The normal price includes a deposit that is payable within 14 days after booking. The remaining payment has to be paid two weeks before seminar at the latest. Deferred payment: In case that the full amount is not paid two weeks before the first seminar day at the latest, reservation and deposit will decay and with that the right to participate. Cancellation: cancelling more than two weeks before a seminar, decays only the deposit. When cancelling later than two weeks before a seminar the full amount has to be paid. This also applies to short-term cancellation due to illness or cancellation of participation.

The following applies to all price options: registrations and deposits are non-transferable to another person! In case of cancellation by the organisers, workshop days that did not take place will of course be refunded according to the above prices.

Prior to attending the event, either proof of vaccination with booster or the presentation of a negative Covid-19 test taken no more than 24 hours before is required or a 15 minute on-site Covid-19 test will be administered to accommodate the safety of high-risk attendees. Please inform us if a Covid-19 test is required for you so that we may accommodate enough testing kits. We appreciate your cooperation during these times, for we want the safety and comfort of all attendees to be a priority.

I have read the terms and conditions on the following pages, understand them and with my registration agree with them.

I agree to receive the seminar organization by email

Date and Signature:

Please print the two first pages of the form unchanged, fill out, sign by hand and send by email to: ariael@qabbalah.org as a scan or photo. No digital signature.

Please pay via paypal to monsour86@gmail.com or transfer the fee to the bank account below. If you need other payment options, please mail me at ariael@qabbalah.org.

You will receive a confirmation of registration with an invoice for the seminar fee by email. Unfortunately, it is possible that an email may not arrive. If you have not received a confirmation of your registration after 14 days, we would like to ask you to contact us again, as the registration has probably not arrived. Without a confirmation of registration, there is no reservation of a place. Please pay within the specified deadlines.

We are looking forward to spend these magical days with you! 😊

General Terms and Conditions

If a participant should behave during a seminar in a way that the standard rules of etiquette are violated (eg, alcohol and drug abuse, insulting or slandering others, rioting or other undesirable or criminal acts ) and his participation is unreasonable for the organizers , other participants or the accommodation, the event organizer is entitled to cancel that person's further participation in the seminar. This also applies in the event of a participant's physical ability or behavioural conduct that may interfere with participation in the seminar. In such cases, no refund of course fees is possible. There is no recourse for exceeding costs.

Teaching materials and other resources

The provision of teaching materials, access to online tools, or the use of other resources associated with a seminar, seminar module, or seminar section, or developed specifically for the attending participants, is contingent upon participation. By not attending a seminar, seminar module, or portion of a series of seminars or other forms of event, all claims to the provision of teaching materials or access to online tools or other resources associated with this seminar or module or section, are forfeited. There is no legal right to these resources, which were developed specifically for attending participants. Registration and payment of the seminar fee entitles participants to attend the seminar. Participation in the seminar entitles to the handing over and use of the resources, but the payment of the seminar fee alone does not entitle to the handing over and use of the resources.

Exams and certificates

If an event contains exams or certificates that certify successful participation in the seminar, then the organizers alone decide whether a participant passed the exam or successfully participated. If certificates are a confirmation of participation, the organizers decide in case of doubt in case of an incomplete participation of a participant, whether the certificate can be awarded or not. If a participant does not pass the exam or does not receive a certificate, there is no right to reimbursement of the seminar fees. The legal process is excluded.

Media Recordings

Seminars or webinars may be recorded by the organizer or by persons commissioned by the organizer for the purpose of creating marketing material or products which seminar participants and other persons may acquire subsequently. Other media recordings of the seminars (for example, photos, audio recordings or video recordings) by persons other than from the organizer authorized or the organizers themselves are not permitted. The recordings are the exclusive property of the event organizer, who also owns the exclusive copyright. The participant does not derive any further rights, rights or claims to or from these recordings.

Copyright

By booking a seminar / event, or by purchasing a recording or (access to) other media, the participant/buyer acknowledges the following facts: All teaching materials and concepts are protected as a whole as well as in parts under copyright and may only be used for personal use. This applies especially to contents created or further developed by the author i.e. the event organizer himself Any use outside the limits of copyright law (especially for own seminars, websites or other publications) without the express written consent of the author inadmissible and punishable. If contents of these teaching materials are stored in an electronic form permitted by the author, then further duplication in electronic form without the express written consent of the author is inadmissible and punishable. (Own video or audio recordings are not permitted.) Legally purchased teaching materials may be copied by the owner for personal use in small numbers (maximum 5 copies) to other devices or media. All teaching materials, such as Seminar documents are provided as a perpetual loan for private use. A transfer to third persons is not permitted. The property rights remain with the author/ organizers. A violation of the copyright law and the provisions set out above will be prosecuted.
